

Sharing the Gospel (the good news!)

What is the gospel...and how to share it? The Gospel (good news) comes to us through Jesus of Nazareth, a Rabbi or teacher. But he was more than just a human teacher. He was God. So what is the Gospel and how do we practise sharing the Gospel with others outside the walls of our church building? How do we move from simple to deeper faith based conversations?

'We want to tell our friends about Jesus. We're told that we need to tell our friends about Jesus. But we don't know how to do it. When it comes to evangelism, we are scared and helpless.' Sam Chan¹

It is the Devil's own work to separate the language of salvation from the setting of salvation. To separate words from personal relationships, to make salvation a 'cause' or a 'project' that can be conducted as efficiently and impersonally as possible. But the Gospel won't permit it.' - Eugene Peterson

3. TAKE STEPS TO GROW IN COMMUNITY:

- A. To grow in this practice, what is one idea you want to experiment with this coming week / month? How will you do that?
- B. Is there someone that you could connect with for mutual encouragement, learning and accountability to deepen in this practice?² It might be your spouse, sibling, close friend, someone in your life group or someone else at this workshop

² This is a practical way we can fulfill our vision together at TCBC "Transforming lives through Christ-centred community"

"Let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching" (Hebrews 10:24-25).
